Re: United States v. Altman,
Dkt. No.:2:10-cr-00053-JLL

Dear Judge Linares,

I represent defendant Michael Altman in the captioned matter. I respectfully request that the motion schedule set by the Court be extended for a period of two weeks. I have spoken with A.U.S.A. Brad Harsch, who advised that the Government consents to this request.

Currently, the Court's scheduling Order requires that defense motions are due by 9/15/2010, the Government's opposition is due by 10/6/2010, and that any reply is due by 10/18/2010. Oral argument is scheduled for 12/13/2010. My request is that the defense motions be due by 9/29/10; the Government's opposition be due by 10/20/10, and that any reply be due by 11/1/2010. The date for oral argument would remain unchanged. No prior application has been made, seeking to extend the motion schedule.

I believe that the requested extension would further the parties' effort to resolve this case. Thank you for the Court's consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,

/s/

JACOB LAUFER
